

Of course! Here are a couple, from classic to a bit more nerdy:

**The Classic:****

Why do Python programmers wear glasses?

\

... Because they can't C#.

---

**For the Programmers:****

A Python object is in a therapy session.

The therapist asks, "So, what brings you in today?"

The object sighs, "I just feel so empty. I have no sense of `self`."
